

Blast Furnace Game

Game description and rules

- Take it in turns in pressing and holding the button on your model blast furnace.
- Holding the button activates the lights within the chimney.
- The lights loop from yellow through orange and red before starting again at yellow.

The aim of the game is for the you to release the button when all of the lights are red. Your teammate logs your number of attempts on the scorecard below. Teammates take turns to play and score.

Like a penalty shootout in football, each teammate plays 5 times with the person achieving all red lights in fewer attempts in each round scoring the point. Increase the difficulty after each round, using the button.
